School report for the month of May 2018.

1. Activity Report :

Date : 02 May 2018
Event : Change in School Timings
Venue : SPSEC

Details : Searing heat, blinding sunshine and soaring temperatures resulted in altered time schedule for the students in the month of May. New school timings were introduced for the students to avoid heat related inconveniences. The revised timings for the students were from 07:45 am to 11:00 am.

Date : 02 May 2018
Event : Lime 'n' Lemony
Venue : Foundation Block

Details : Yellow is the summer time which can be seen in the flowers, the tart lemonade and the blazing sun. To explore the colour of the season 'Lemonade Day' was organized in the Foundation Block on 2nd May, 2018. Children were asked to dress up in yellow colour outfit and bring handful of sugar and lemon. The day began with fun introduction and activities in connection with the yellow colour. Various melodious songs and rhymes were sung by the choir group – yellow is the sunflower, swaying in the breeze....; yellow, yellow sun, smiling at everyone...; this station is yellow....; I'm yellow, I'm yellow, la la la la. A lemonade stand was set up for them where they saw and learnt to make lemonade. They prepared the lemon concentrate for their own classes and learnt few vocabulary words such as – pouring, stirring, squeezing and tasting. It was a fun activity as money coupons were given to them to buy a glass of lemonade for themselves, they bought the lemonade glass for Rs. 10/- each and enjoyed their drinks. To revive the concept of yellow, colour related objects were shown to them such as tweety, winnie the pooh, sunflower, lemon, banana, mango and sun. Children were given yellow play dough and had fun while creating their own summer and colour related badges through lemon print activity, colouring and ear bud painting. To make them identify and experience the basic taste of lemon they were made to smell and taste the lemon which was sour, when mixed with sugar it tasted sweet and with salt it became salty.

Event : KSS English Debate
Venue : GHS-IMR
Organizer : SPSEC

Details : SPSEC organized the KSS Inter-School English Debate Competition for the students of Classes 6-8 at GHS-IMR auditorium and the topic of the debate was – Children Today Have Become Victims of Fashion and Brands. Fifteen prestigious CBSE schools of Kanpur participated expeditiously in the debate competition including the host school. It was very apparent that the teams were meticulously prepared and they used innumerable oratorical dexterities to stimulate the audience. The participants, armed with statistics and data made their arguments unequivocal.

Supporting the topic, the speakers vocalized that we have entered a scary world where fashion and brand conscious parents and media is responsible in victimizing the children and are expecting them to be miniature adults. Speaking against the motion, the ingenious orators stated that style has an impact on their personality and subsequently their lives. In this day and age, children have their tremendous personal vogue and refuse to participate in trends. The brain storming debate session kept the audiences spellbound. The Officiating Principal Mrs. Bhawna Gupta welcomed the reverential gathering.

The esteemed panel of judges included Dr Anupam Shukla (HoD English Department, DAV College, Kanpur), Mrs. Nidhi Karun Mehrotra and Dr (Mrs.) Dorothy Rai (Asst. Professor, English Department, Christ Church College, Kanpur). The programme commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by the panel of the esteemed judges accompanied by the Officiating Principal of the school, Mrs. Bhawna Gupta. The Chairperson Ms. Anuja Kesarwani, the Supervisor of the Middle School, conducted the proceedings. She encouraged the efforts of the young speakers and motivated them to declare their conviction boldly and not to stand in the shadow of incertitude.

The Observer and the Judges blessed the budding debaters and appreciated their efforts of putting forth their views with conviction and intrepidity. Through their words of wisdom, they guided the orators to choose the path of righteousness in life and the judges lauded the potential, competence, debating skills and dexterity of participants.

The Faculty members of the host school and teachers from all the reputed participating CBSE schools also witnessed the debate session.

The result is mentioned as under:

Position (For the Motion)	Name	School
