Details : Soaking in the spirit of Christmas and inspiring students to share and care, SPSEC organised XMAS WAVE 2020 - a virtual celebration from December 23 to December 25, 2020. Christmas was celebrated with cheer and love by all Singhanians spreading the message of compassion and joy. All the teachers of Root, Bud and Bloom were dressed up in red attires and Santa caps. The event began with a short introduction of Santa Claus followed by the story of the "Gingerbread Man". In the craft session organised for Root, Bud and Bloom kids, they made Santa Claus, Christmas tree and Reindeer. On the second day, the kinds enjoyed preparing and relishing a yummy pudding. The show ended with a choir presentation by teachers. The entire school vibrated with the echoes of Christmas carols. The boundless joy of celebrating the festival was visible on the faces of one and all.

In classes I and II, the Christmas celebration started with a prayer to the Almighty. Children wore colourful attires, sang carols with their teachers and also decorated their Christmas trees with bells, stars, lights etc. during the virtual celebration. The narration of Christmas story added fervour to the festivities depicting the significance of the festival to the students. Chef Activity “Little Heart’s Kitchen” was highly enjoyed by the students as they loved making their cake pudding which they relished during the class party. The boundless joy of celebrating the festival virtually was visible on the faces of the children and they displayed their talent by participating in different activities. The theme-based virtual party was a big hit among students as they danced merrily and participated whole-heartedly in fun-filled activities.

Various online activities were conducted for the students of Grades III- VIII. The multi-talented Singhanians put up a great show on the Christmas afternoon. The programme commenced with prayer that was followed by a message from the Bible. After the message, the online gathering was mesmerized by melodious song and foot tapping dance performances. Children were apprised about Christmas related beliefs together with the significance of exchanging gifts. Simple and easy but attractive and useful methods of gift wrapping ways were also discussed and beautifully demonstrated. Inspirational story of Christmas was narrated with an aim to imbibe moral values among young minds. Some self-composed soothing messages related to the festival were also enjoyed by the viewers online. To begin preparation for the upcoming year, new year resolutions were also shared by some young gleaming faces that were brimming with new hopes and aspirations. The fun filled time provided an opportunity to the budding stars with a platform to showcase their talent. The programme ended on a positive note with the teachers waving and wishing all ‘A Merry Christmas’.
