The students wrote about a martyr of their choice with his/her picture, who has played a significant role in India’s freedom struggle such as Rani Laxmi Bai, Subhash Chandra Bose, Bhagat Singh etc.

The topic assigned to the students of Class VII was ‘SLOGAN WRITING’. The students expressed their views by creating their slogans while highlighting the words growth, education, determination, and freedom for our country.

Class VIII students expressed themselves on the topic ‘Meliorate Indian’. They expressed their feeling of nationalism through beautiful drawings, collages and poems expressing their contribution to the Mother Land.

Class IX was assigned the topic ‘Pen is Mightier’. To show the might of the pen, the students of class IX emphasized the role played by renowned authors, poets and journalists who motivated the people to stand up against the Britishers through their inspiring articles and poems.

Class X was assigned the topic, ‘The Formidable Heroes of the Resistance’ to focus on those unsung heroes of our history whose contribution is never mentioned in our history books. The students saluted their indomitable spirit by pasting pictures related to them and their contributions in the form of a collage.

All the students of classes VI – X participated in these various activities enthusiastically and excitingly to showcase their feelings of patriotism and express their gratitude towards those freedom fighters and unsung heroes who have made our present brighter through their sacrifices so that we proudly celebrate ‘Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav’.
